2007 ENERGY EFFICIENCY GLOBAL FORUM & EXPOSITION

Join us on Sunday, November 11th, from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm at the Washington, DC Convention Center (801 Mount Vernon Pl, NW) to learn how to save money and the environment through energy efficiency. EE Global Public Day will be a fun family event with entertainment from green-focused radio station The Globe 94.7, exciting raffle drawings for energy-saving products, the chance to meet the Maytag Repair Man, and an exciting Energy Hog Show providing kid-friendly tips for saving energy!

The event also will serve as a “how-to guide on energy-efficiency” with experts on hand to analyze home energy bills and educational seminars addressing the following topics:

- How to lower your energy bills
- DC’s plan to reduce its carbon footprint
- Becoming a carbon conscious consumer
- What to look for when buying a new vs. old home
- Hybrid vehicles and efficient driving

Over 60 confirmed exhibitors will be displaying the latest energy-efficiency technologies including state-of-the art home appliances, LED holiday lights and a vehicle that get more than 100 miles-per-gallon! Visit EEGlobalforum.com for details.
